

Monica Sullivan

Evergreen Park, IL

Monica has been an Alliance member for more than twenty years. She has served in multiple roles in both the Alliance of the Chicago Dental Society and the Alliance of the Illinois State Dental Society, including president. She edited the state Alliance newsletter for six years, spearheaded the selection of dental student scholarship awards, and serves as an active participant in the AADA Conventions and Conferences.

Monica enjoys meeting with Alliance friends to discuss ways to promote membership and develop projects. She is very interested in dental health education, and in 2010 initiated the It's Not Tooth Early, It's Not Tooth Late dental health education project, which is being promoted nationally. She was very involved in the first Illinois Mission of Mercy event.

Monica works as the Office Manager in her husband Barry's office
