

Susan Beckett

Wabash, IN

An Alliance member for over twenty-five years, Susan was nominated because of her commitment to the dental community and the Alliance. She was a member of the Indiana University Student Spouse organization and became a charter member of the Alliance of the Wabash Valley Dental Society, where she served in most positions, including president for three years.

At the state level, Susan has served in many leadership positions, and because of her interest and knowledge of Well-Being Programs, she serves as the Well-Being Liaison from the Indiana Alliance to the Indiana Dental Association. Dental Health Education projects are also important to Susan. She wrote the grant application for the AADA Senior Smiles Project and then chaired the project for two years. Susan along with her daughter and grandson produced the video "My First Trip to The Dentist" which has been shown throughout the United States.

In her professional life, Susan worked as a Health Information Administrator, Quality Improvement and Medical Staff Support in hospitals. She now volunteers as a representative for the State Health Insurance Program, helping individuals with Medicare, Medicare Supplements, etc. Susan's husband Bob is retired and they enjoy spending their time traveling.
